As parents, we understand the impact of screen time and content and their effects on our children. But how can we confidently navigate this world while setting (and resetting) appropriate boundaries and limitations? Can we determine why and how this world is affecting our children so deeply today? Adam Holz, the director of Focus on the Family PluggedIn – an entertainment and technology review website – will provide valuable insights, encouragement, and practical ways to deal with this crucial aspect of our families' lives.

ADAM HOLZ

Adam R. Holz is director of PluggedIn where he has served for 20 years. Prior to that, Adam served as associate editor for Discipleship Journal. Adam and his wife, Jennifer, have three teens, and they're in the thick of things in terms of helping their kids understand how to navigate entertainment and technology in a healthy, Christ-honoring way.
